

Enderby Wharf by Barratt London Greenwich, London

Built in an area of Greenwich known for its rich pioneering heritage, Enderby Wharf by Barratt London is a great place to live if you enjoy life by the water – many of the new homes offer views of the River Thames and Canary Wharf. With such a beautiful location, the housing developer wanted to add a luxury feel to its showhome, opting for tiles from our Mode and Minerals ranges for the property’s high-end bathroom and en-suite.
